NOTICE

MBA Counselling Rounds for MBA (IB/HRD/BA) programmes 2026-28

The candidates are required to note the following regarding the subsequent counselling rounds:

1. The counselling rounds will be conducted in online mode.
2. The list of candidates shortlisted for the first counselling round will be published on the official website of the Faculty of Commerce and Business (www.commerce.du.ac.in). The list will be prepared based on the preferences of the programmes indicated by the candidates in his/her Application form. No request for a change in programme preferences will be entertained. In case of any discrepancy in the published list, the candidates may raise their concerns up to 11:59 p.m. on the date of publication of the list.
3. The shortlisted candidates will receive the payment link via the email address provided in their application forms. The fees for all the courses have been revised. (Revised Fee Notification)
4. The shortlisted candidates will be given two days to complete the fee payment. To avoid last-minute technical issues, candidates are advised not to wait until the last day to make the payment.
5. The candidates who do not take admission when called for counselling shall be excluded from the admission process and will not be considered for subsequent counselling rounds (as specified in the Admission Brochure).
6. In the event of vacant seats, the Department will carry out an automatic upgradation process based on the programme preferences submitted by candidates in their original application form (as mentioned in the Admission brochure) for those candidates who have confirmed their admission.
7. The candidates who secure their seat will have to present all their original documents for verification (as asked during the GD-PI round) and submit hard copies of their documents in the office of Department of Commerce, Faculty of Commerce and Business, by stipulated time.
8. Please note that admission is provisional. If, at any stage, a candidate is found to be ineligible, the admission shall be cancelled, and the candidate shall have no claim for refund of the fee paid or any other financial compensation.
9. The candidates are advised to read the Admission Brochure carefully.
10. The candidates are advised to regularly visit the official website for further updates.
